Eligibility Information

Based on the eligibility criteria, you may be eligible for the following:

Estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) =
011349

The EFC is a measure of how much you can contribute to the cost of your education. Schools use your EFC to determine your federal student aid eligibility.

The EFC is not how much aid you will receive or how much you have to pay for college.

Direct Stafford Loan Estimate - $9,500.00

You may also be eligible to receive other federal, state, or institutional grants, scholarships, and/or work-study.

In addition, you should learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

You indicated that you were going to file your taxes and were providing estimated 2013 tax information. Once you have filed your tax return, you must update the information you reported on the FAFSA to reflect the actual information from the 2013 tax return you filed. If you filed a federal tax return with the IRS, when you access your FAFSA online, you may be eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, which is the best and easiest way to provide accurate tax information. With just a few simple steps, you can view information from your IRS tax return and transfer that information directly into your FAFSA.
